Chapter 1 by leahx

The girl she wasn't like any other girl. The girl who was always in the back of the classroom, mute and never raised her hand. Her name was Ann, but the thing is Ann died about 3 weeks ago. People still feel the strong vibe of her presence. Its almost creepy, it's like she is still alive with us.

She was never popular, but she had a great group of friends. She wasn't the leader, but she always opened up to her friends. She told them everything, about her problems down low to her losing a bet or something.

She was named the girl who observed..
